

ACTION ALERT

The NCGA returns for another special session on January 10th, so let's welcome them back the DAY before with what's on all of our minds! #CLASSSIZECHAOS

Join us Tuesday January 9th from 4:00-6:00 PM for a TWITTER STORM! Our elected representatives need to know how seriously we take the impending fiasco caused by unfunded K-3 class size restrictions. School districts need guaranteed funding and more time!

Be ready to join us and our partners at Public Schools First NC and the NC Justice Center as we rain tweets on our reps! The NCGA must fix the slow-moving disaster that threatens to engulf districts, enhancement teachers, schools, and families.

We'll be using the #ClassSizeChaos hashtag so they won't have any question about what we're tweeting about. Please concentrate on Senators first. The Senate is where the hold up is on this issue.

Local school districts want the NCGA to restore the original HB13 bill to allow more local flexibility in K-3 class sizes. Further, our school districts deserve to have the enhancement teachers ("specials") FULLY funded in January to allow time for budgeting.

Remember to @ your members and legislative leaders, and consider using the following tweets, or your own variations, with the proper handles in place. (Take care not to draft tweets longer than 130 characters so that you'll have room for handles.)

You can find twitter handles here: <https://www.publicschoolsfirstnc.org/2017/09/28/classsizechaos-twitter-storm-a-comin/>
