

Installation of New Officers

It is my privilege to be with you today to install your newly elected officers. An installation is a serious occasion that indicates the willingness of these leaders to face together the concerns and problems of (UNIT) and every other unit of NCRSP; and is also an opportunity to work with new friends and strengthen old friendships.

I would like to congratulate the membership of this unit on the cooperation with the outgoing officers, making their term of office successful. I would also like you to pledge your support for these new officers you have elected and work with them to make their term successful. (Officers-elect, please come forward and take your places with the President on my right and the other three on my left.)

(TO THE LEFT) Do you promise to perform faithfully all the duties of your respective offices as stated in the by-laws? Please answer ‘we do’. Do you pledge allegiance to the president in his/her efforts to carry out the objectives of NCRSP? Please answer ‘we do’.

(TO THE PRESIDENT) You have been elected to serve the (UNIT), NCRSP. You have been chosen to lead this organization in all its endeavors. President _____, do you pledge faithful performance of your duties as stated in the by-laws? Please answer ‘I do’.

Madam/Mr. President and members of the (UNIT), the officers you have elected are now installed for the coming two years. Let me congratulate you on having chosen this group of officers and let me express my confidence in their ability to promote the growth of this organization.
