

NCRSP Stanly County Unit
December 8, 2016 Meeting
Minutes

The Stanly County Unit of NCRSP met on December 8 at 11:30 am at Dennis Vineyard, A Place in the Vineyard in the Endy community.

President Cindy Misenheimer welcomed everyone to the meeting and introduced the NSHS Hand Bell Choir performing under the direction of NSHS Director of Music Aza Hudson. The choir presented a beautiful program of traditional Christmas selections arranged for hand bells which highlighted the precision and skill the students have mastered in this program.

Following the program, Cindy presented the director with a check for lunch which the choir can enjoy at a later time.

During the business meeting, the minutes of the October 27, 2016 meeting and the treasurer's report were approved as printed. Members received copies of these reports for their reference.

Gordon Lampley shared an update on the local website. He encouraged members to participate in each meeting by taking pictures and making post to this website. He also distributed the NEA/American Vision Challenge to Political Leaders and encouraged members to continue to hold leaders accountable and to encourage support of public education.

Cindy informed members that the February and March meetings will be held at another location due to renovations being made at this facility during these months. She will be signing a contract with First Baptist Church in Albemarle in the next few days for our temporary meeting location.

Jane Crenshaw will be receiving the NCRSP Community Service Volunteer Hours for 2016. She will accept forms by mail until January 1, 2017.

Her mailing address is 4900 Royal Troon Drive, Raleigh, NC 27604.

Cindy shared that the canned goods received at this meeting will be delivered to the West Stanly Christian Ministries after the meeting by Jim Misenheimer. She thanked members for their very generous contributions for this effort.

Members were reminded that they will be given an opportunity to donate money at the February meeting to honor teachers during National Educators Week. This money will be helpful as groups make arrangements to deliver items to the schools during this week.

Cindy also encouraged members to give box top coupons to Kim Whitley in support of local school projects.

Following the business meeting, Cindy held the door prize drawing with the assistance of Mary Adkins. Faye Crump was the recipient of the free lunch for the February meeting.

Cindy gave the invocation and members enjoyed a delicious buffet meal prepared by caterer Dwight Eudy.

The official report submitted to the secretary indicated that we had 58 members and 6 guest in attendance for this meeting.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, February 23 in Albemarle.

Respectfully submitted,

Claudette Burris, Secretary
